

Signal Work is System Work

Technical Reality and Arbitral Analysis

Signal Work is System Work

Technical Reality and Arbitral Analysis

MODERATOR

Michael Phillips

Vice President - NARR

PANELISTS

Justin Pier

Vice President–NRAB

Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen

Jared Hopewell

Assistant Vice President, Communications & Signals

Norfolk Southern Corporation

ROUTE REQUESTED

Switch

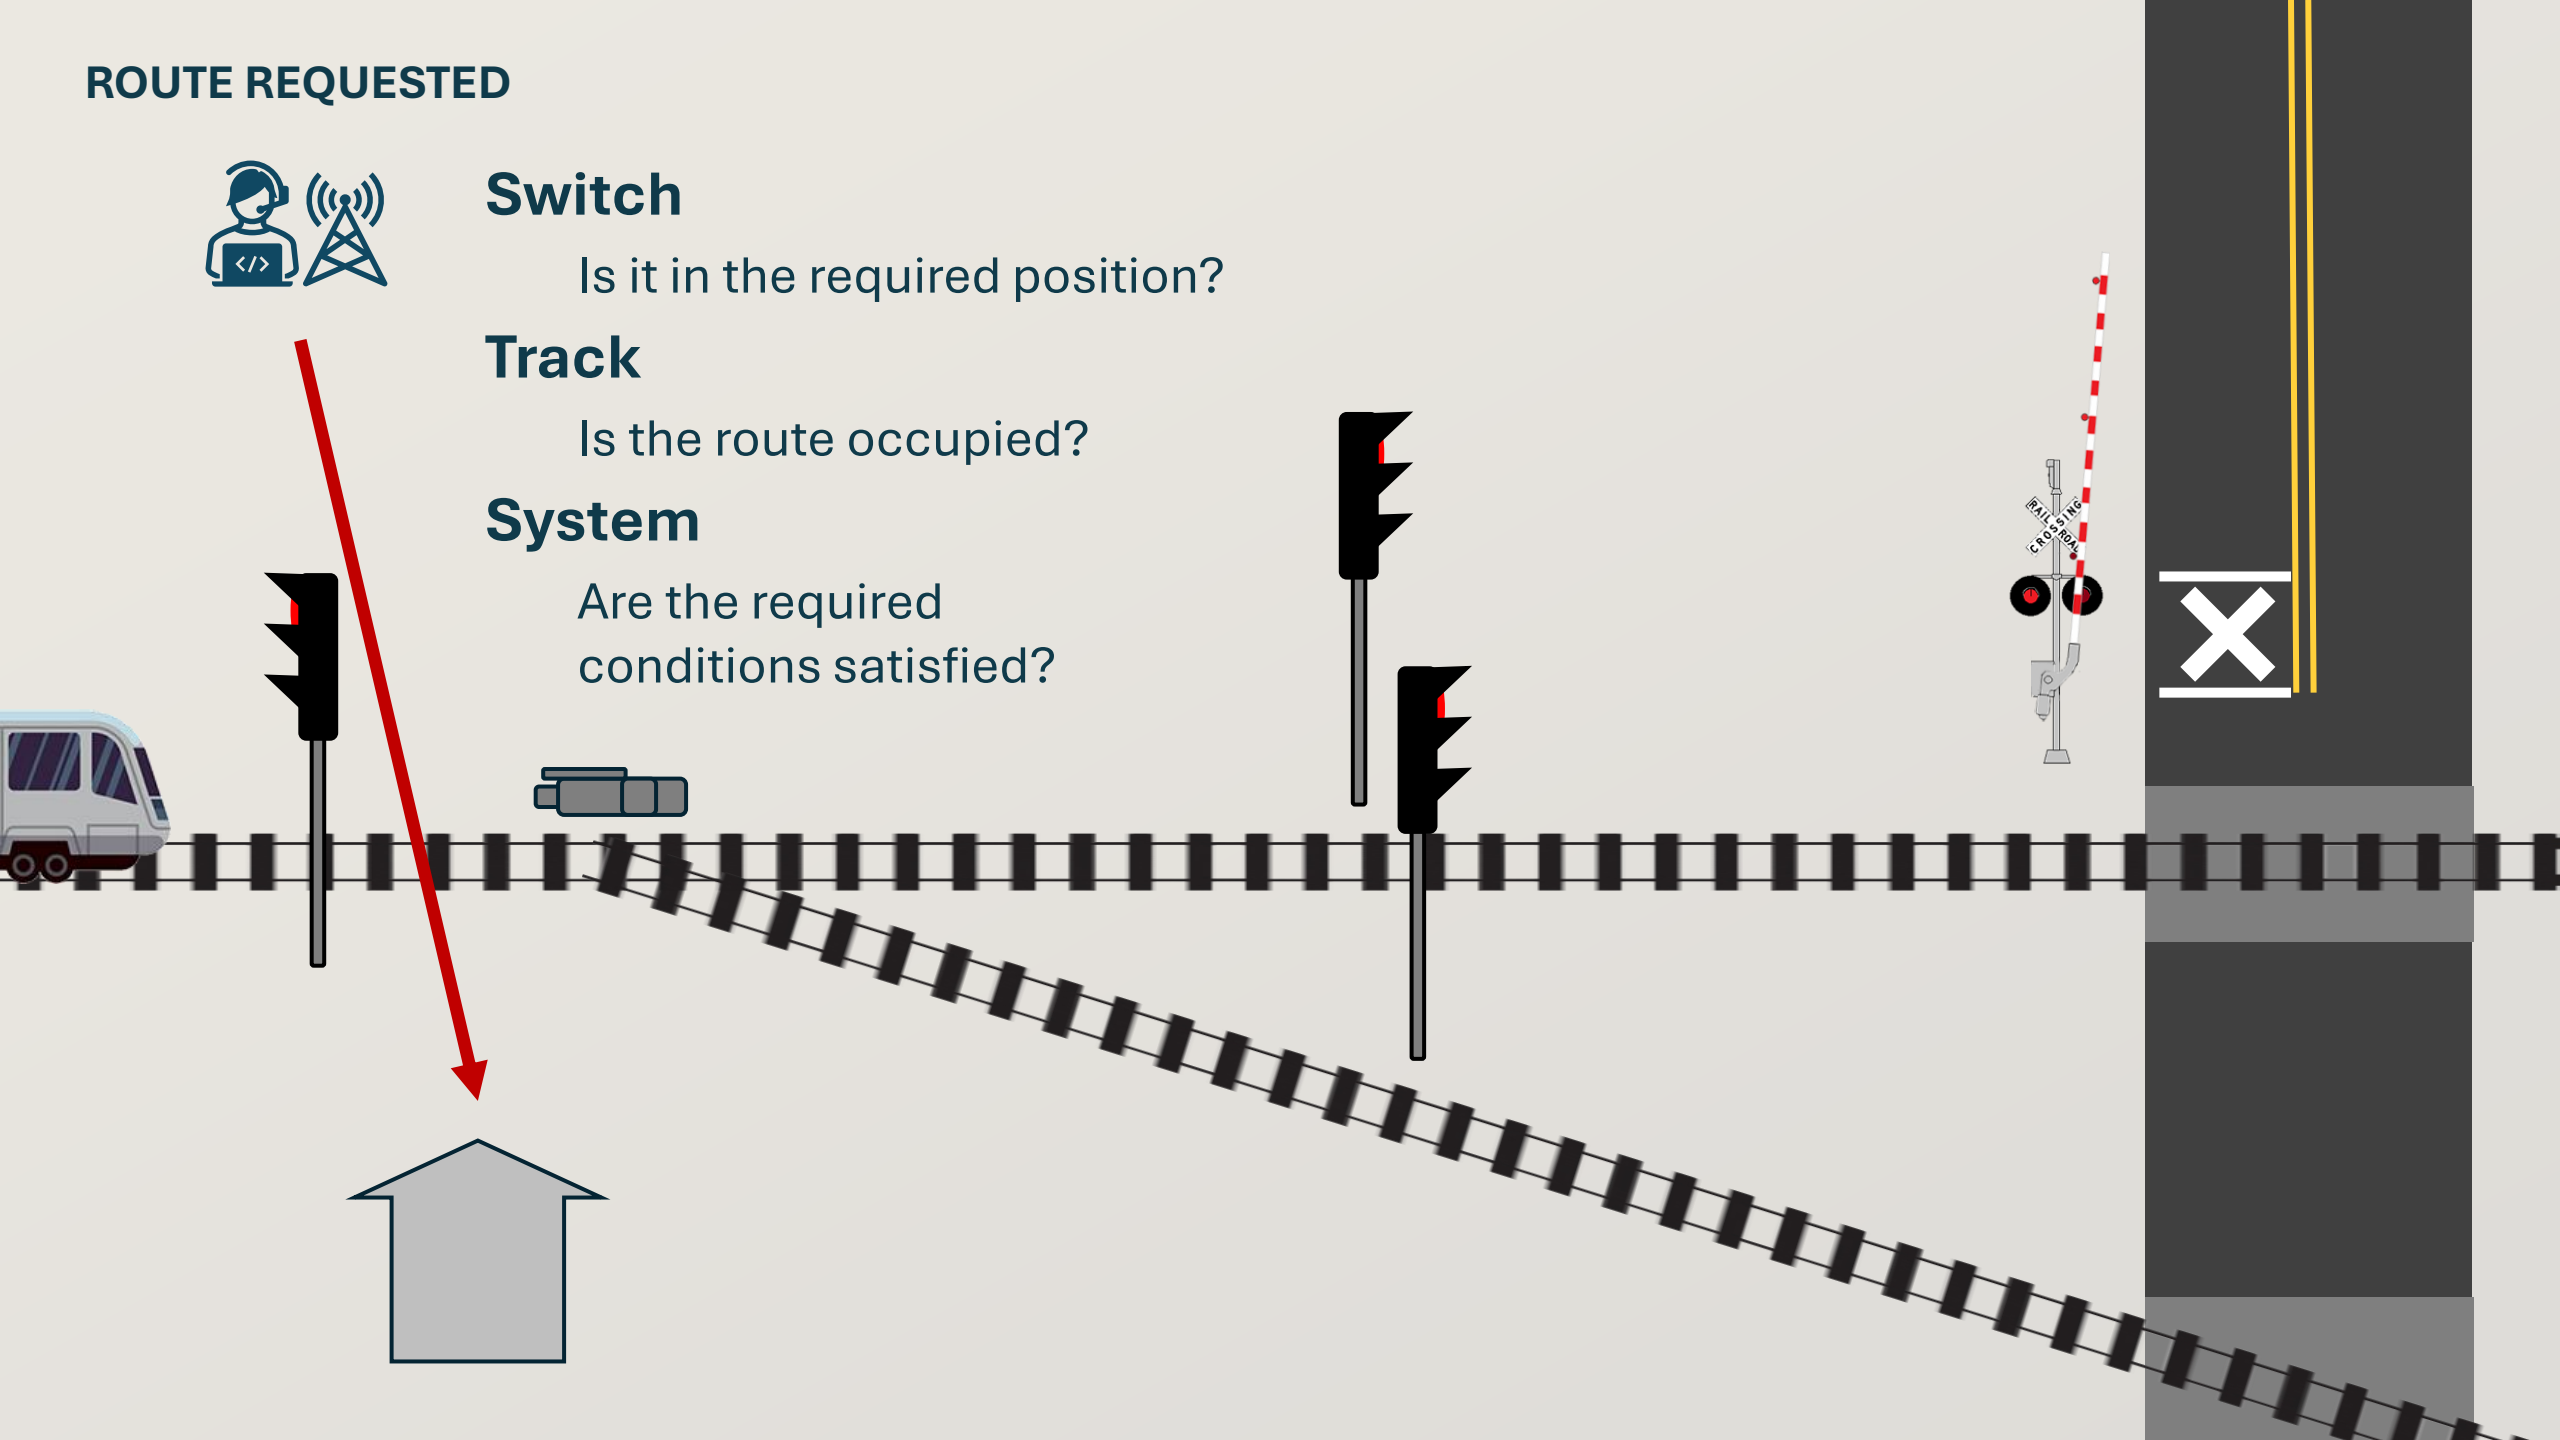

Is it in the required position?

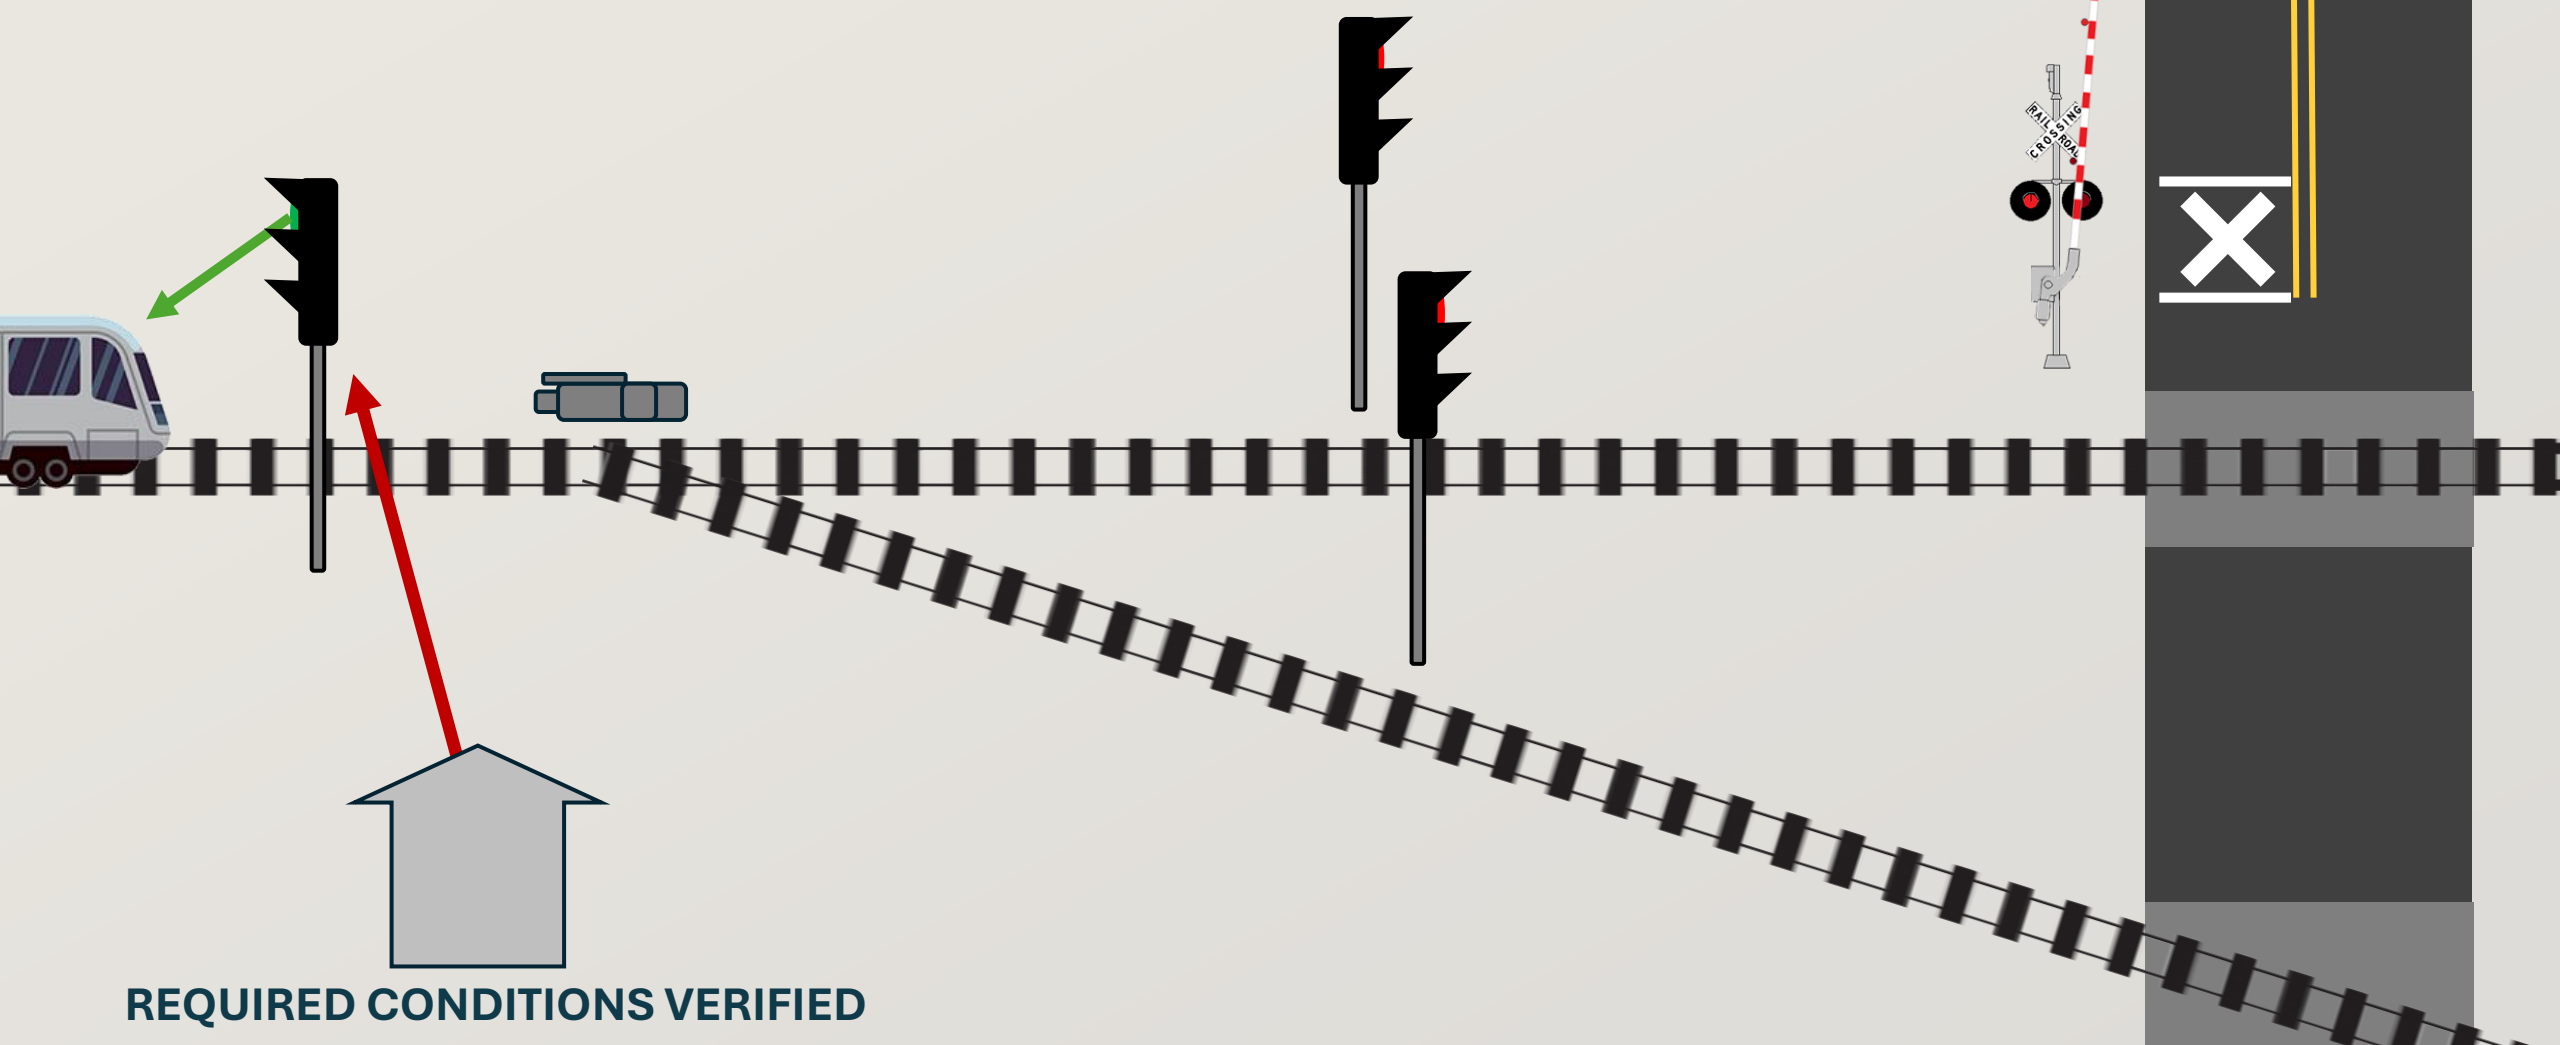

Track

Is the route occupied?

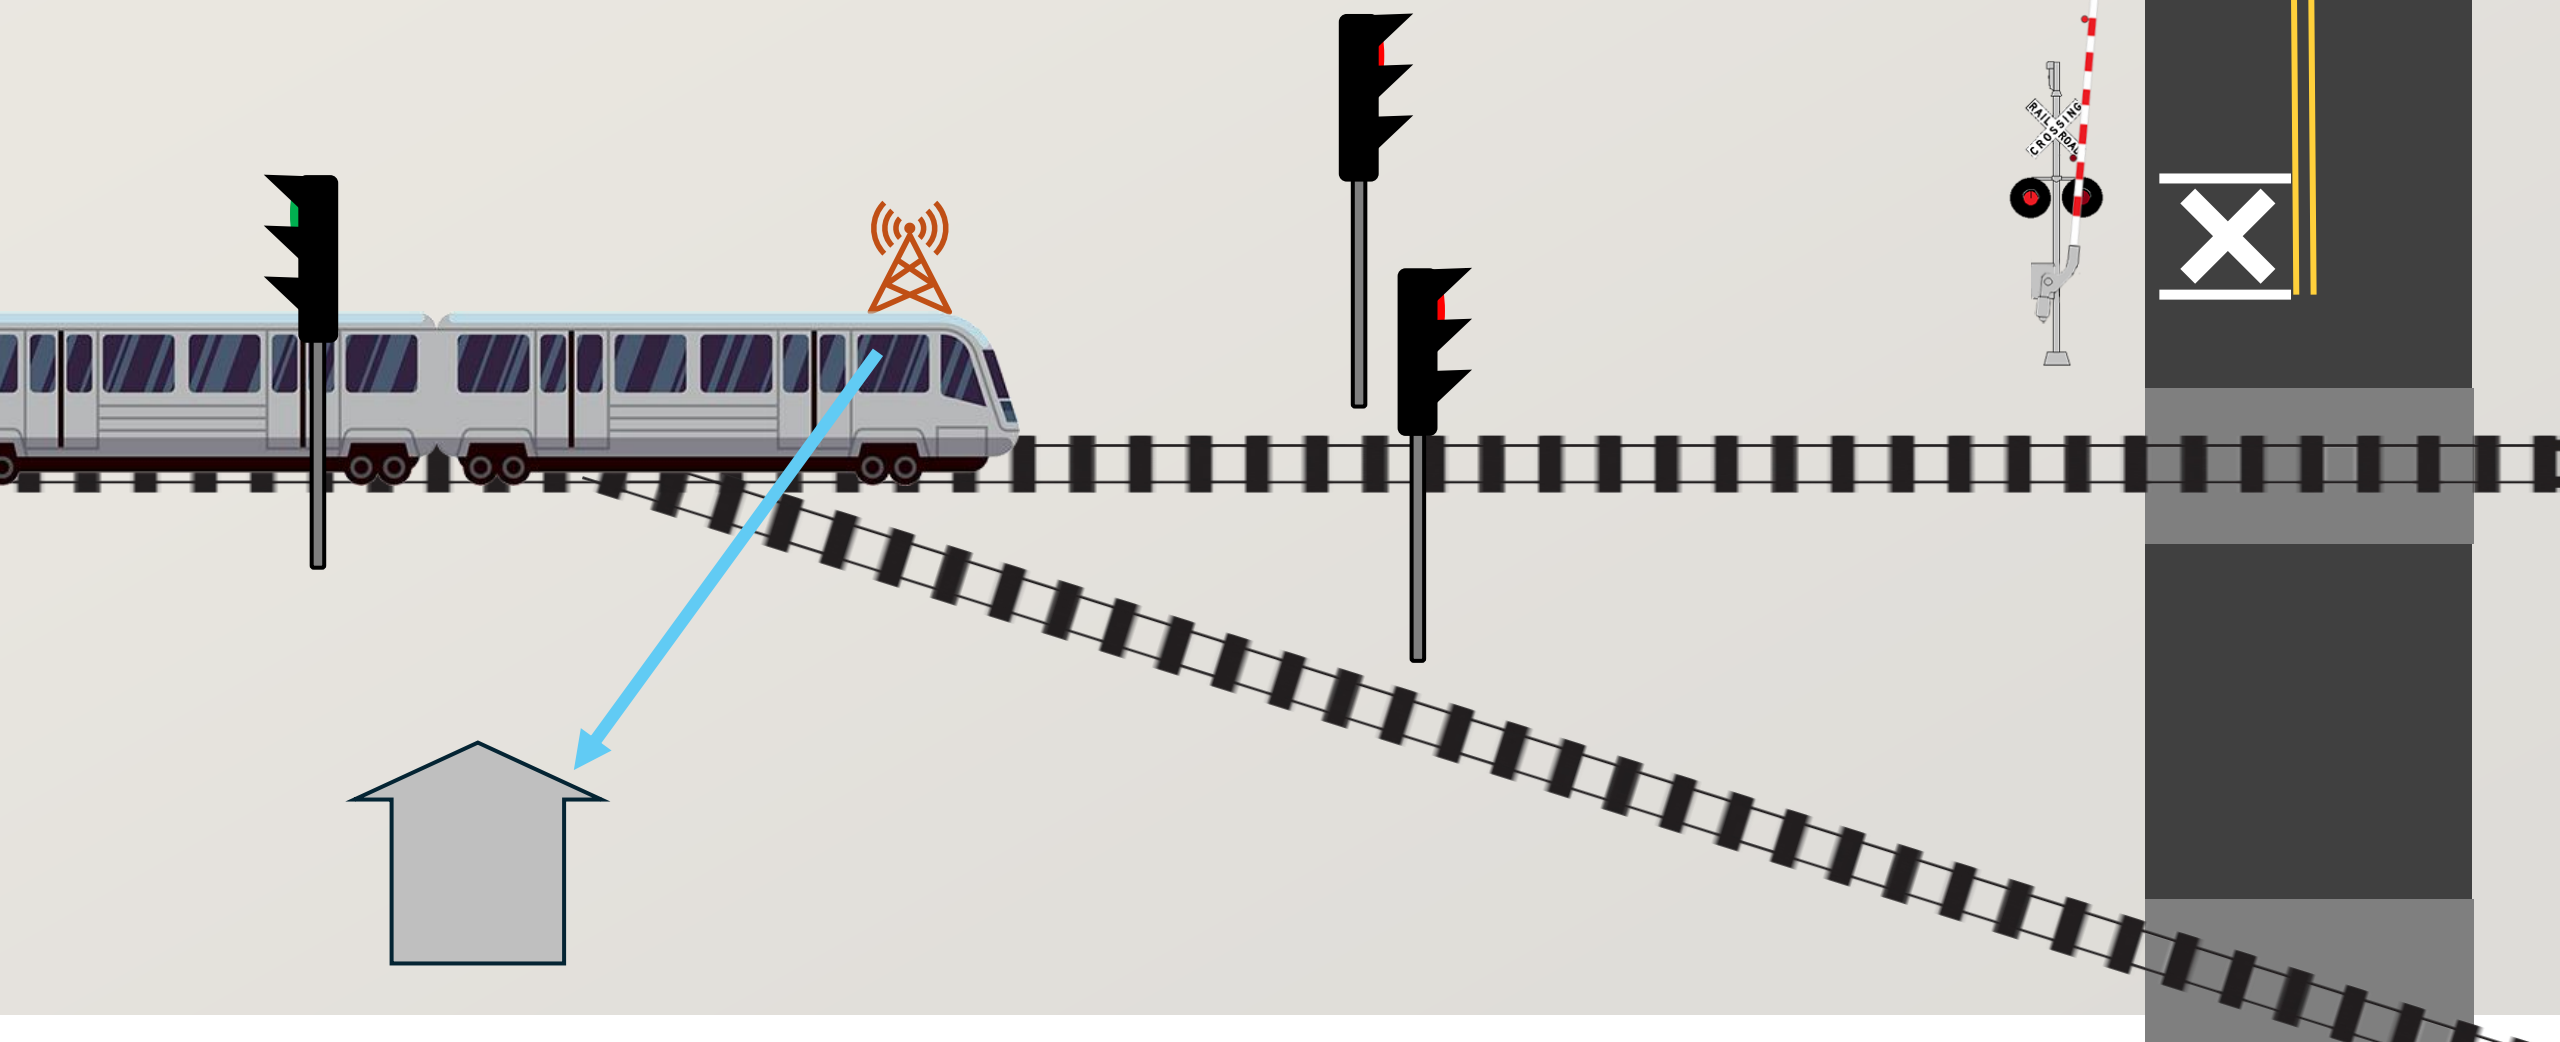

System

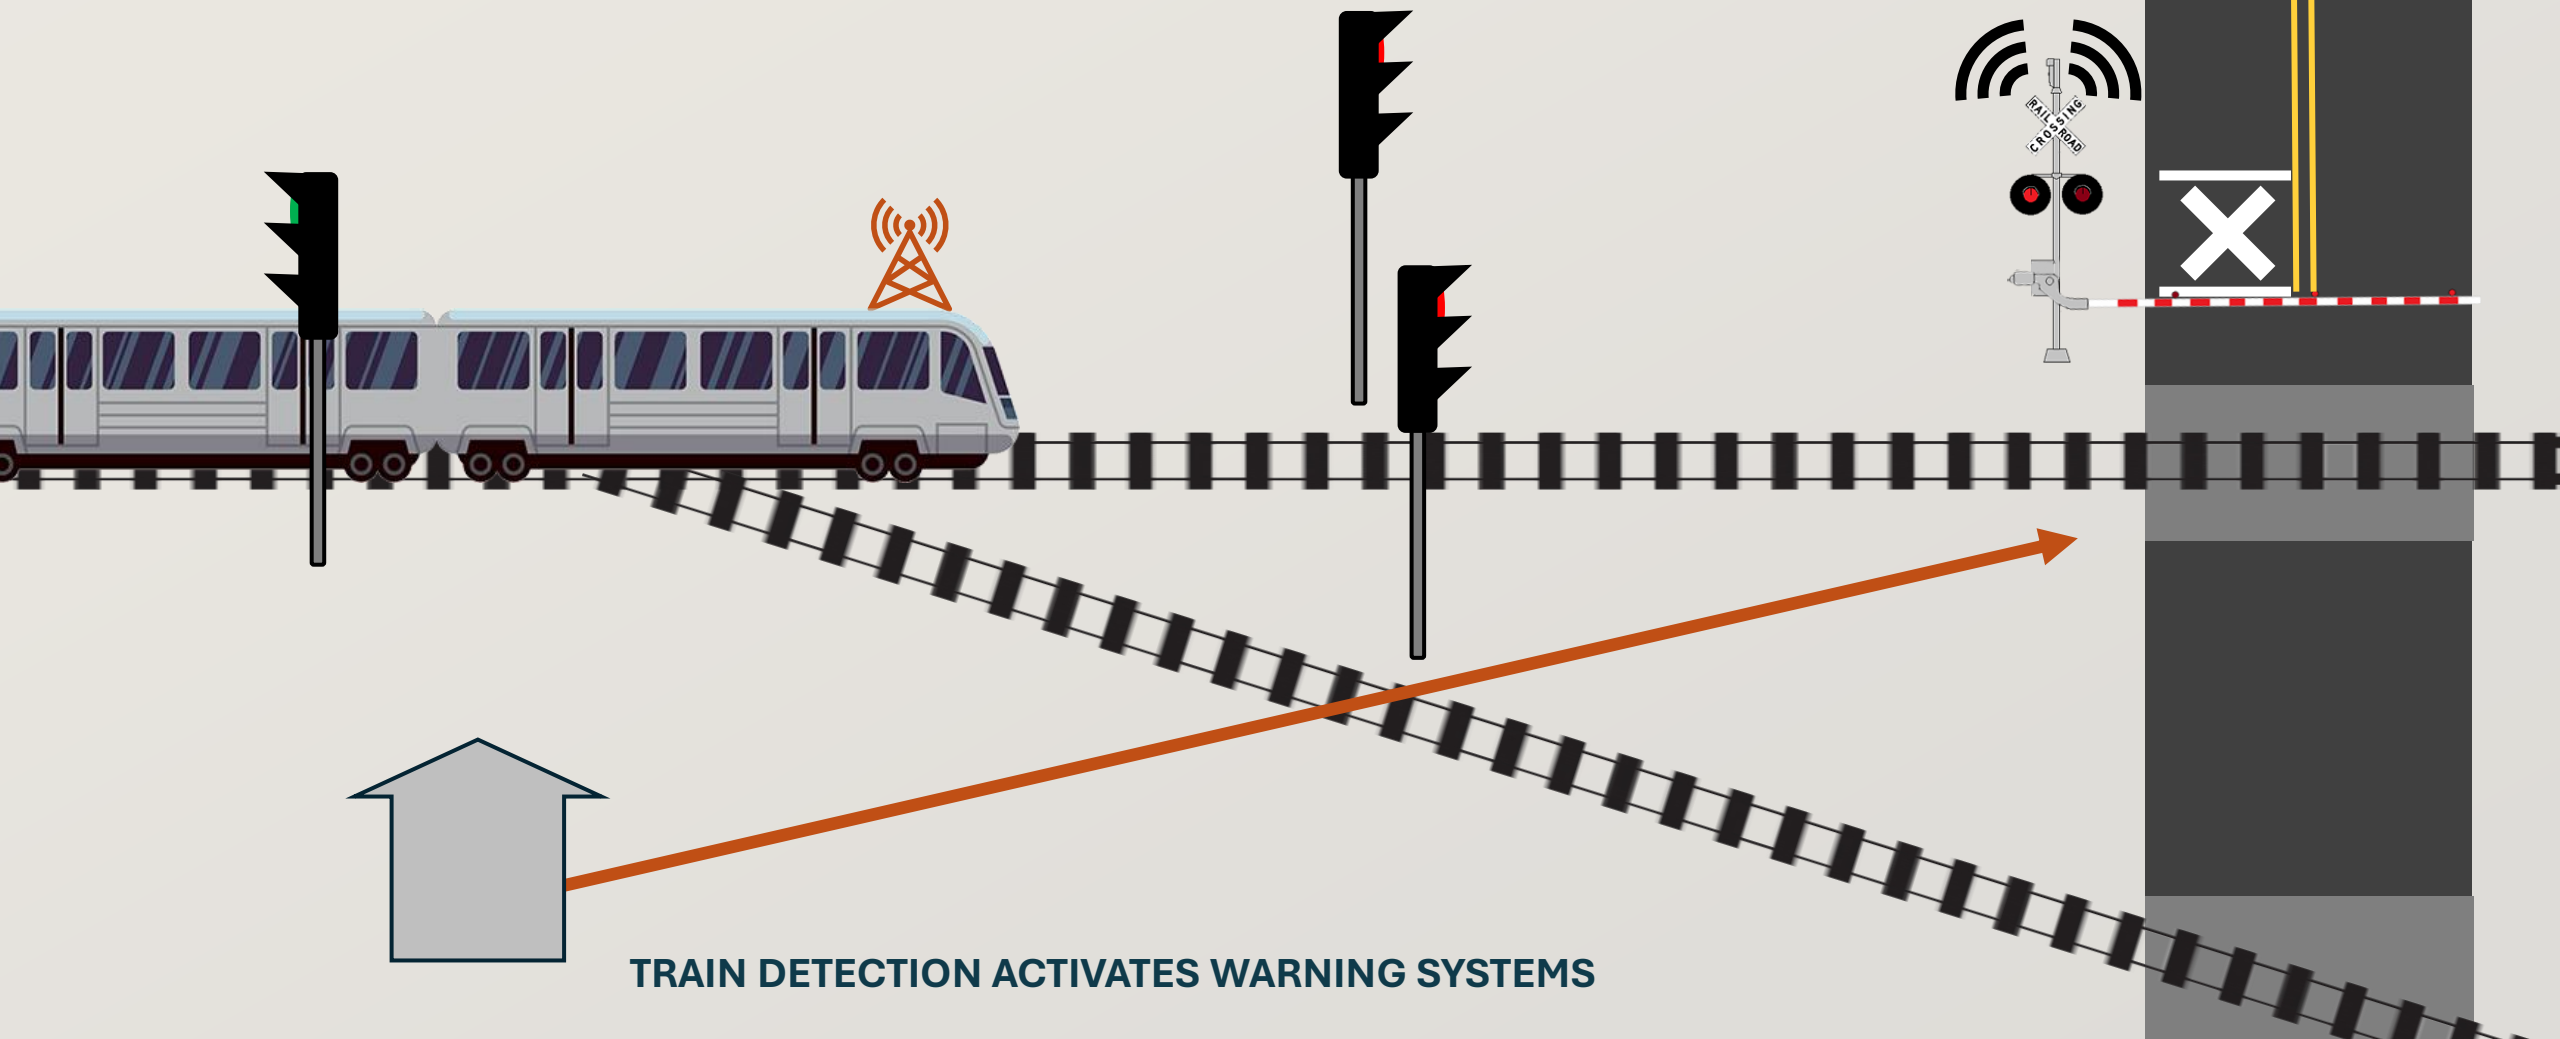

Are the required conditions satisfied?

REQUIRED CONDITIONS VERIFIED

TRAIN DETECTION ACTIVATES WARNING SYSTEMS

ROUTE REQUESTED

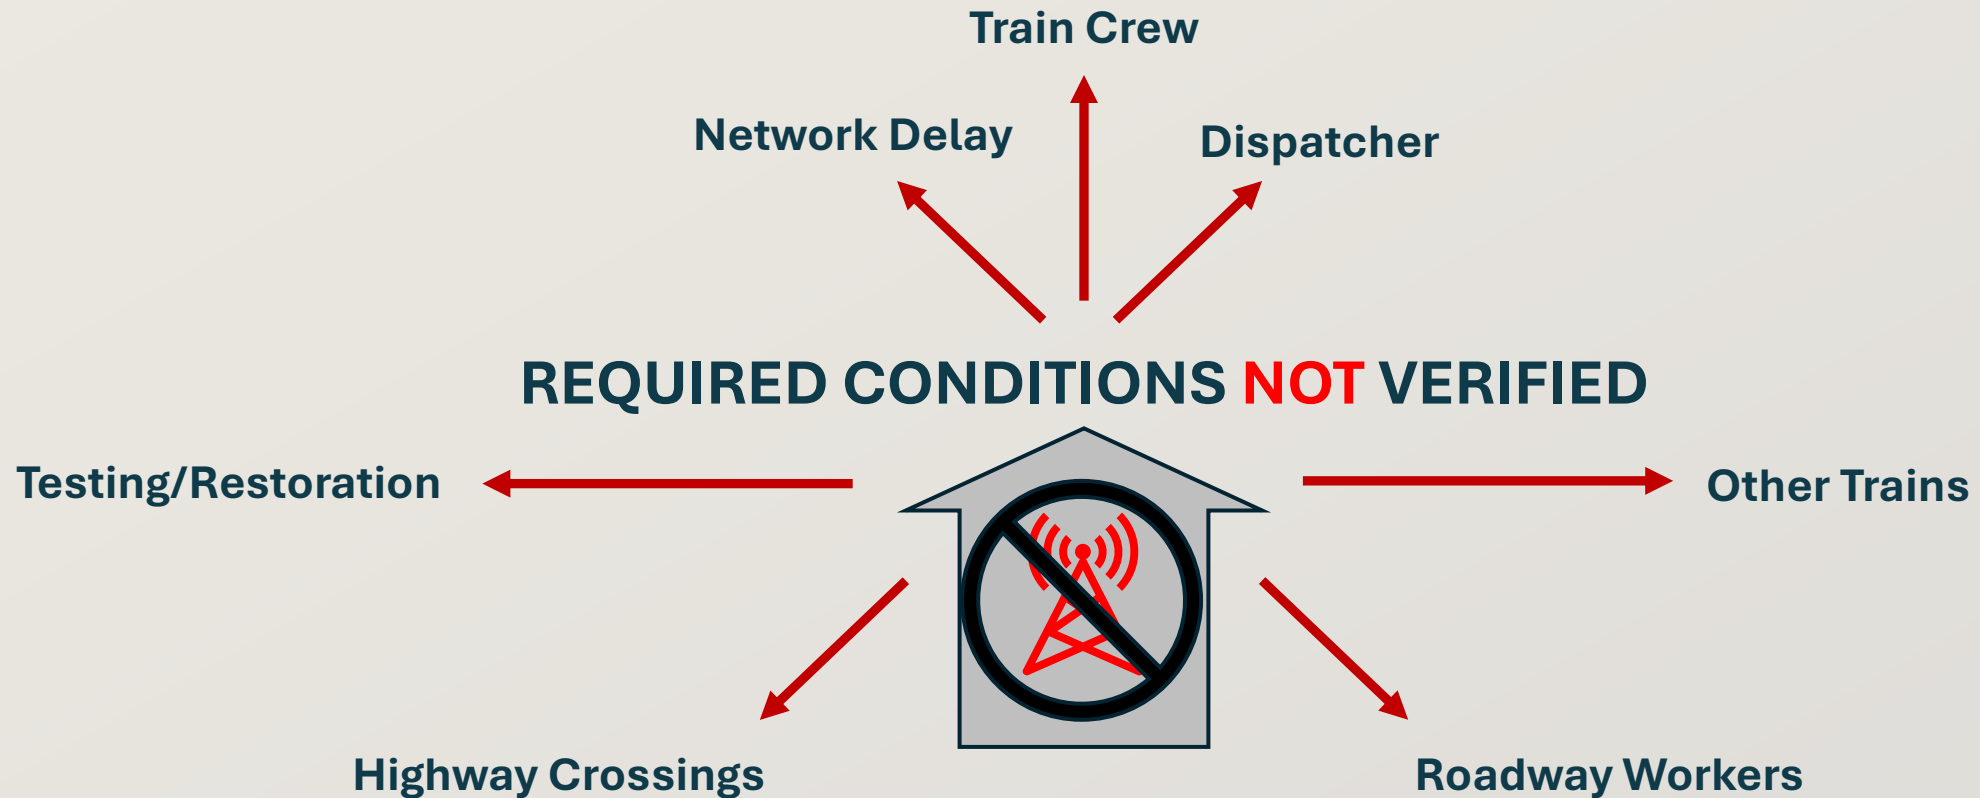

Restrictive Response

- Stop / Restrict Movement
- Troubleshoot & Test
- Restore & Verify

REQUIRED CONDITIONS NOT VERIFIED

LOCAL CONDITIONS LEAD TO OPERATIONAL CONSEQUENCES BEYOND THE LOCATION

When Technical Reality Meets The Agreement

Scope Hypothetical

A solid yellow horizontal bar that starts with a small square and then extends as a long rectangle to the right edge of the slide.

Defining the Work and Evaluating the Record

A solid yellow horizontal bar consisting of a long rectangle followed by a small square at the right end.

Discipline Hypothetical

A solid yellow horizontal bar that starts with a small square and then extends as a long rectangle to the right edge of the slide.

Causation, Evidence, and Individual Responsibility

A solid yellow horizontal bar consisting of a long rectangle followed by a small square at its right end.

UNDERSTAND THE SYSTEM

DEFINE THE WORK

APPLY THE AGREEMENT

TEST THE PROOF

UNDERSTAND THE SYSTEM

DEFINE THE WORK

APPLY THE AGREEMENT

TEST THE PROOF

Q&A